Sixty Disagrees in Case of New Yorkers Accused of Bringing Films Across Border.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 18.—A disagreement was reported to-day by the jury in the case of the Government against James J. Johnston, manager of the Madison Square Garden; Harold T. Edwards, a New York attorney; Lawrence M. D. Morris, President of the New York Real Estate Exchange; Samuel Rothman, manager of the Duplex Moving Pictures Company; Harry A. Fishbeck and W. V. Brymer, indicted for bringing pictures of the Willard-Johnson fight over the Canadian border for exhibition purposes.

The case has been on trial for two weeks in Federal Court before Judge George W. Bay and a jury. The defendants were represented by George Gordon Battle of New York, law partner of Senator Gilmore; Abel L. Smith, formerly Assistant United States District Attorney, and George C. Cheever, who argued that they had merely taken a photograph on the American side of the boundary of an object on the Canadian side. It is understood that the Government will try the case over again.
